Communion Calls to the Housebound

I will call to the housebound in the parish with Holy Communion during the coming week leading to the First Friday 4th April.

I will be in touch with those on the visit list beforehand to arrange a day and time for call. If you have a family member, or know of a neighbour who is housebound and would appreciate a visit, please contact me.

Second Collection this weekend

The Diocesan Quarterly Collection is a second collection this weekend Sat/Sun 29th/30th March.

This is the second of four collections through the year which contribute to the day-to-day running costs of the Diocese, such as the cost of personnel, utilities, repairs and maintenance, primary and secondary school religious advisory costs, safeguarding, data protection, and mission and ministry.

In January the Diocesan Quarterly Collection amounted to €56,738. As we continue the Year of Prayer, Listening and Discernment in our Diocese and discern how God is calling us to be his Church and Faith Communities into the future, your financial support for this collection is greatly appreciated.

Vigil of the Two Hearts

Devotion in Honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

The First Friday Vigil of Reparation of the Alliance of the Two Hearts will take place on Friday the 4th April commencing with exposition of The Blessed Sacrament after the 9.00 am Mass and ending with The Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3.00pm.

It would be nice if you could spend some time in the Eucharistic Presence of Jesus during this period.

Thinking about Getting Married

If you are considering getting married within the Diocese of Cork and Ross, a detailed guide is available on our Family of Parishes website www.parishestogether.ie/sacraments/marriage and on the diocesan website at www.corkandross.org/marriage.

These guides contain information about pre-marriage papers that must be completed both at a parish level and with the civil registration authority.

There are also links to information about pre-marriage courses, a guide to planning your marriage ceremony and information for those residing in the diocese who might be considering getting married outside Ireland.
