Reflection

Today is the feast of the Baptism of the Lord.

Jesus knew what was going to happen at his baptism and that is why he insisted that John the Baptist would baptise him in public, so that it would be witnessed by all who were present that day and he knew that news of this spectacular happening would spread throughout the country. Those who had already been baptised by John would realise that this Man, Jesus, was very different. He was the beloved Son of God who had spoken from Heaven and God's spirit and come down on him. The spectacular baptism showed that John the Baptist was right all the time when he said he was not worthy to tie the sandals of the Messiah but Jesus the Messiah thought so highly of him that he had allowed him to baptise him.

Recently deceased we remember in our prayers Monica Madden (Rathcooney) and Mary Leader (Whitechurch)

Congratulations to Emma Delaney and Aaron O'Connor who were married on New Years Eve.
