Reflection

Today's gospel is another parable with some puzzling elements. Why did the invited guests decide not to turn up and give lame excuses. Are there urgent matters in my life that prevent me from accepting God's invitation to active Christianity? Why was the man without a wedding garment treated so harshly. This parable is not about wearing clothes. The man who came without the proper clothes is the Christian in name only, who refuses to put on Christianity throughout his life. God expects us to wear our Christianity. People should know that we are Christians by the way we live our lives.

Wearing our Christianity in this way is a solution to the problems in our society. When we identify ourselves first as Christians rather than as members of this or that political party or as liberal or conservative, then our primary mode of action will be to treat others with the kindness of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ alone is the solution to all our society's needs. Today we pray for an active Christianity. May we truly put on Christ, in our homes, among God's people, and in our world.
